DIGITAL CITIZENSHIP TASK CARDS

> ## How to use:
> These task cards can be used as discussion starters for small or large groups. Conversely, they can be used to spark student research and exploration.

What kind of personal information is stored on your phone or tablet? How can you protect yourself?

You're waiting to be seated at a restaurant and want to play a game that requires Wi-Fi. The only network is listed as "unsecured." What do you do?

Why is it important to have unique passwords for every site?

The public library has their Wi-Fi password protected. What are the pros and cons of this type of safeguard?

What are some examples of cryptography? What are the pros and cons?

What devices do you have personal information stored on that needs to be protected?

You come home from a field trip and realize your cell phone is missing. What should you do?

The online gaming website you use got hacked. What should you do?