

Digging up Evidence

When you are reading, pretend you are an archaeologist digging up important artifacts that are essential pieces of information you need to share!

Directions: Read the text/passage. Then cut out two pieces of evidence from the text. Glue one piece in the top portion of the fossil and one piece of evidence on the bottom portion of the fossil.

